

Be aware of scan negative CES
Consult Neurology

For more information visit
CESLife.org

Under 24 hours to treat incomplete acute CES from the ONSET of symptoms

For more information visit CESLife.org

For patient resources or physician to physician questions- Call 407-984-6394

R
I
S
K
F
A
C
T
O
R
S

- Ankylosing Spondylitis*
- Arachnoiditis / Adhesive Arachnoiditis*
- Blood Thinners
- Cancer/Lymphomas*
- Chronic Low Back Pain
- Congenital Disorders
- Degenerative Disk Disease History
- Epidural Steroid Injection History*
- Fever with Neurological Changes
- History of Blood Clots
- History of Herniated Disk(s)
- Lumbar Punctures*
- Lumbar Surgeries
- Neoplastic History*
- Paget's Disease*
- Recent Ataxia
- Recent/New Bladder Disturbances
- Recent/New Constipation
- Recent Childbirth*
- Recent/New Sexual Dysfunction
- Recent Trauma / Injury
- Rheumatoid Arthritis*
- Sciatica
- Spinal Stenosis
- For a full list of risk factors visit CESLife.org

If You Encounter Scan Negative

(-) MRI with multiple CES positive

(+) signs- Consult a neurologist,

BEFORE discharge from the ER.

They can diagnose and treat

Idiopathic CES and/or other rare causes of scan (-) CES. Scan (-) CES is still a medical emergency.

Not all causes of acute CES have treatment

©2021

This card is intended for use by trained medical professionals and is by no means medical advice.